Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-5, 7, 10 and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Sheets.

Sheets shows a bottle B having first and second portions; ends at 15 and 16; valve 32 from 20 and cap C, the valve clearly spaced from the closed end; float member 33; arm on 32 seen in Figure 2; vent member F discussed in column 8, lines 53-58 having a flange portion on the end extending from the bottle, plug portion that engages the bottle with a cavity in between and a filter inside; tube member 20; spigot 39; and fluid dispensing station 11 having a cabinet portion.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

5. Claim 6 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Sheets.

Sheets has been discussed above, but lacks the positioning of the spigot. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to place the spigot closer to the closed end of the bottle in order to dispense fluid at a position closer to the ground.

6. Claims 8, 9, 12 and 13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Sheets in view of Baldwin et al.

Sheets has been discussed above, but lacks the reverse-osmosis filter. Baldwin et al. shows a reverse-osmosis filter 42. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to provide a reverse-osmosis filter as taught by Baldwin et al. on the device of Sheets in order to remove more contaminants from the water.

Allowable Subject Matter

7. Claims 14-21 are allowed.

Conclusion

8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Middlemiss, Russell, Tan et al., Fowler, Lee and Sleiman show other water bottle type dispensers; and Pavel shows a reverse-osmosis filter.
